Society Women as Henry VIII. Wives to Aid "Dugout"

Mmes. Hoyt, Hamilton, Bosin Pageant.

Four young matrons of society will production next Sunday night by appearing as a quartet of the wives of King Henry VIII. Another of the sexter of speuses of the Blue Beard King will be impersonated by Mrs. Cosmo Hamilton, wife of the playwright, who has aided in staging a number of entertainments for charitable and welfare protects.

projects.

The beneficiary of Sunday right's performance, which is to be held in the Shubert Theatre, is to be the Dugout, a clubhouse and workshop for ex-service men in vocational training, of which Mrs. Edward McVickar is the executive head.

men in vocational training, or which marks. Edward McVickar is the executive head.

Mrs. Hamilton will play Catharine Howard, the fifth wife of the much married monarch. The original wife, Catharine of Aragon, will be played by Mrs. Alfred C, Bossom. As wife No. 2, the ill fated Anne Boleyn, Mrs. Lydig Hoyt, who recently entered the professional movie field, will have her first speaking part in a Broadway production, an opportunity she has confessed she has long hoped for. Jane Seymour, wife No. 3, will be impersonated by Mrs. Monroe Douglas Robinson, and wife No. 4, Anne of Cleves, by Mrs. Charles de Rham. Jr. The role of Catharine Parr, the last and the most fortunate of the sextet because she survived the temperamental monarch, is yet to be selected.

The occasion for the materialization of Henry's wives is to be the first presentation in this city of Mr. James S. Metcalfe's Shakespearian pagent, "The Children of the Bard." Henry himself will be simulated by Mr. Stephen H. P. Pell, who by so doing will be obliged, through the arts of the dressing room, to add 170 pounds to his natural weight. Three one act plays, new to Broadway, are to vary the programme of the Clark, who had been in Baltimore, Mc.

to add 170 pounds to his natural weight. Three one act plays, new to Broadway, are to vary the programme of the benefit. They are to be "The Recoil" by a dead French playwright, in which Miss Helen Ware will appear; "Impediment" by Alan Brooks, with Miss Carol McComms and Sydney Blackmar in the cast and "My Lady's Face" by Edgar Allen Woot, with Miss Jessie Busley playing the leading part.

Society is to be represented not only in the cast and the audience, but also as ushers, who will be Misses Marie R. Lamarche, Rita Toker, Julia Shearer, Ethel Hayes, L. Helena Ogden, Ellen Semple and Ruth Marden.

Miss Black Engaged.

Mr. N. R. Jones to Wed Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Van D. Black.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Van Derventer Black of Irvington on Hudson have an-Black of Prington on Pideson have all-mounced the engagement of their second daughter, Miss Katharine Black, to Mr. Nicholas Ridgely Jones of this city They will be married on June 25 in An engagement luncheon was given for Miss Black yesterday by her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Prince, of 44 West Seventy-seventh street, at the Hotel Ambassador, Amons street, at the Hotel Ambassador, Amons the guests were Mrs. Spencer Snotter, Mrs. Graham Johnston, Mrs. Gordon Harris, Mrs. Grant Small, Mrs. Henry Wilson, Mrs. Whitney Morrill, Mrs. Dex-ter Hewitt, Mrs. Chessman Kittredge, Mrs. George Walker, Mrs. Kenyon Conger, Mrs. Robert Stevenson, Mrs. Harold Vanderpoel, Misses Florence Burroughs, Sylvia Brown, Lulu Bur-Marold Vanderpoel, Misses Florence Burroughs, Sylvia Brown, Lulu Bur-roughs and Olive Irwin. Miss Black's sister, Miss Dorothy Black, was mar-ried to Capt, Francis Murray Brady, United States Air Force, in Pasadena, Cal., on March 31.

Miss Penrose to Be Bride.

Mr. Andrew Van Pelt to Wed Daughter of Dr. C. B. Penrose.

ter of Dr. C. B. Penrose.

Announcement has been made in this city and Philadelphia of the engagement of Miss Sarah H. B. Penrose, daughter of Dr. Charles Bingham Penrose of 1720 Spruce street, Philadelphia, to Mr. And trew Van Pelt, also of Philadelphia, but previously of New York. Miss Penrose is a granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Drexel of New York and Philadelphia and a coustn of Mrs. Reginald T. Townsend, Mrs. John Flavel Hubbard and Mrs. Pichard Smith Emmet of New York, and a niece of Mrs.

Miss Gunn to Be Bride To-merrow.

Personal Intelligence.

Mr. and Mrs. Dexter Blagden

Mmes. Hoyt, Hamilton, Bos-som, Robinson and de Rham

Mrs. Henry Clews will start for Europe on board the Adriatic on June 1 and pass the summer abroad.

Mrs. Chester Griswold will go to her ountry house in Southampton, L. I., Mrs. Marshall Field 3d, who has con

Judge Richard P. Lydon and the Misses Marie and Cornella Lydon, his sisters, will sail by the Olympic on June 25 and remain abroad until the end of Sentember.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Frelinghuysen of Tuxedo Park are at the St. Regis, where Mr. and Mrs. F. Worthington Hine of Glen Cove, L. I., and Mrs. F. Ambrose Clark, who had been in Baltimore, Md., for several weeks, also have arrived.

Mrs. Justus Ruperti, accompanied by her daughters, the Misses Lily, Wilhelmine, Salife and Florence Ruperti, will go to Hillair, their country place in Sterlington, N. Y., on May 25. Mr. Ruperti and Miss Ida Ruperti will sail by the Lapland on June 11.

Miss Muriel Vanderbilt, who was a guest of Mrs. George W. Vanderbilt at Biltmore, N. C., and later passed a few days in Aiken, S. C., has returned to New York. She will start for Europe with her mother, Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt 2d, and her sister, Miss Consulco Vanderbilt on head the Aquitania next Vanderbilt, on board the Aquitania next

The Russian Ambassador and Mme. Bakhmeteff gave a dinner last night. Secretary of the Italian Embassy and Signora Celesia di Vegliasco gave a dinner and dance last night.

Mme, Marc Peter gave a dinner last night, taking her guests later to the Horse Show.

Mrs. Stephen B. Elkins gave a dinner and dance last evening at the Chevy Chase Club.

The marriage of Mrs. Dorothy Williams McCombs, daughter of Mrs. John R. Williams, and Frederick Sterling will take place Saturday at the residence of Mrs. Williams.

The Spanish Ambassador and Senora de Riano entertained Spanish residents of Washington and members of the Spanish colony of New York at luncheon yesterday, in celebration of the birthday of the King of Spain.

Mrs. Lorillard Spencer, who has been at her villa for a few days, started for New York hast night.

The count of all the first that is because the first that the property of the first that the

ALSO -TO BE SOLD AT UNRESTRICTED PUBLIC SALE

To-morrow(Thurs.) & Friday Afternoon at 2:15 An Exceptionally Interesting Collection of THREE HUNDRED & SIXTY OLD HOOK RUGS

GATHERED DURING THE PAST FEW YEARS BY

MR. C. E. LAWRENCE

ON FREE VIEW 9 A. M. UNTIL 6 P. M.

The Sales will be conducted by MR. THOMAS E. KIRBY AMERICAN ART ASSOCIATION, Managers Mailson Sq. South, Entrance 6 E. 23d Street, New York.

Henry van Dyke's S. S. BREESE TO WED AGAIN; Daughter Engaged to British Officer

Miss Elaine van Dyke to Become Bride of Capt. C. D. Le G. Clark-War Romance.

to the St. Regts from Chicago with Mr.
Fleid, will said for England by the nounced from their Princeton home, Olympic on June 4.

Avalon, the engagement of their daught-

Mr. and Mrs. Elihu Root and Mrs. Cyril Drummond Le Gors Clark of the William Adams Kissam entertained friends at dinner last night at Delmonico's.

Mr. and Mrs. Gluseppe Catalani, who had passed several weeks at the country home of her mother. Mrs. Henry F. Dimock at Coventry, Conn., have gone to Venezula.

Avalon, the engagement of their daughter. Miss Elaine van Dyke, to Capt. Clark of the Gritish Army, son of the Rev. E. Travers Clark of Newton Abbott. South Devon, England.

Miss van Dyke to Capt. Clark of the Service with the Near East relief committee in 1912-1929 in Constantinople, Belrut and Aleppo. Capt. Clark is of the Thirty-Dimock at Coventry, Conn., have gone to Venezula.

Mrs. Lewis L. Clarke, wife of the president of the American Exchange National Bank, recently christened the steamship San Ugon, and yesterday, as a pleasant sequel, entertained Capt. A. W. Skelley at luncheen and presented to the San Ugon is one of the fleet of the Eagle Oil Transport Company and was built by the Standard Ship Building Corporation at Shooters Island. She is leaving port soon for her maiden trip to Tampico, thence to England, with an oil cargo.

A substantial sum of money was carned yesterday by the Women's Auxiliary of the Leake and Watts Orphan House at a card party in the Hotel Bossert, Columbia Heights, to provide funds for a dairy farm for the children of that home. The arrangements were made by Mrs. James Kennedy, Mrs. William H. Todd, Mrs. Herbert Todd, Mrs. A. B. Barker, Mrs. James French, Mrs. James Donald and Mrs. George Richmond Mr. Sydney S. Breeze gave his large United States entered the war she joined bonald and Mrs. George Richmond Smith.

Mrs. Nelson B. Gatch Has Daughter.

Mr. Sydney S. Breeze gave his large United States entered the war she joined the local Red Cross Motor Corps. She also was identified with the welfare work of the Y. M. C. A., the Y. W. C. A., the Sydney S. Breeze gave his large United States entered the war she joined the local Red Cross Motor Corps. She also was identified with the welfare work of the Y. M. C. A., the Y. W. C riage last June, was Miss Lois Church Scoville, daughter of Mrs. Nathaniel Church Scoville, of 10 East Flifty-second street.

THE COLLECTION OF

PERSIAN RUGS

CHINESE CARPETS

Also Rare, Antique and Modern Rugs

THE ABOVE COLLECTION WAS

Mr. H. H. Topakyan,

ON VIEW TO SALE TIME

Miss Paula Augusta Matsner.

to Follow by Few Weeks That of First

Wife to Mr. N. W. Tilton.

Forty-seven players, managers, press agents and friends left the vicinity of Times Square in twelve motor buses, on the last of which was a sign, "Follow Us. Broadway. Fox Hills Needs (larke's

42-44 East 58th St. (Between Madison and Park Aves.) SECOND SESSION TO-DAY At 2:30 P. M. The Sensation of the Art Season! The Great Sale of

Spanish Art and Antiquities forming the famous collection of SENOR LUIS RUIZ of Madrid, Spain The Sale Will Be Conducted by MR. AUGUSTUS W. CLARKE

Dillingham and FOUND ROMANCE IN WAR WORK Ziegfeld Star in Mrs. Castle's Case

Managers Give Comic Relief to Dancer's Action for $30,-000 Over 'Miss 1917.'

Florens Ziegfeld, Jr., and Charles B.
Dillingham, who purvey the lighter forms of amusement to hungry palates at $4.40 per plate, and Ned Wayburn, who now and then assists in concecting a tasty dish, turned actors themselves he became unconsidered in danger. at $4.40 per plate, and Ned Wayburn, out of the disclosed wartness of stage celebrities to sign contracts with the now long defunct Century Amusement Corporation, which had such men as W. K. Vanderbilt and Otto H. Kahn behind it, though they felt perfectly all right it "Carrie" Dillingham would put nis John Hancock to their contracts.

Mr. Dillingham told of explaining the nature of the corporation to Mrs. Castle as see signed a contract to appear in "Miss 1917." a production which occupied the Century Theatre late in 1917 and which had a short run after succeeding the more successful "Century Girl." He and Mr. Ziegfeld, he testified, were engaged by the corporation, which, he said, comprised the same men who were behind the movement that built the New Theatre, now the Century, "to try to fill it up—put shows in there to keep it alive."

"Lew Fields insisted on your personal signature to his contract?" Mr. Podell asked Mr. Dillingham.

"He didn't get it," the producer said. "You yourself had confidence in the corporation, didn't you?"

"They paid me the first year, too," His salary for the "Miss 1917" production, Mr. Dillingham.

"He didn't get it," the producer said. "You yourself had confidence in the corporation, didn't you?"

"They paid me the first year, too," His salary for the "Miss 1917" production, Mr. Dillingham.

"He didn't get it," the producer said. "You yourself had confidence in the corporation, didn't you?"

"They paid me the first year, too," His salary for the "Miss 1917" production, Mr. Dillingham remarked, was to have been $500 a week, "106 less than the producer of the Hollis Street have been $500 a week, "106 less than Themplaint, the dancer was entitled, with the dancer w His Marriage To-day to Miss Paula Augusta Matsner

Smith.

Mrs. Nelson B. Gatch Has Daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson B. Gatch of 155
West Fifty-elighth street are being congratulated on the birth of a daughter a few days ago at the Lying-in-Hospital, it also the congratulated on the birth of a daughter a few days ago at the Lying-in-Hospital, it also the congratulated on the birth of a daughter a few days ago at the Lying-in-Hospital, it also the congratulated on the birth of a few days ago at the Lying-in-Hospital, it also the congratulated on the birth of a few days ago at the Lying-in-Hospital, it also the congratulations are being extended to the society of Ethical Culture in this city, and will pass the summer cruis-light with Mrs. Alvest.

Daughter Born to Mrs. A. H. Ives.

Congratulations are being extended to the and Mrs. Born to the congratulations are being extended to the and Mrs. Lawrence deceeved with a congratulation are being extended to the and Mrs. Lawrence of the congratulations are being extended to the and Mrs. Lawrence of the congratulations are being extended to the and Mrs. Lawrence deceeved the congratulations are being extended to the and Mrs. Lawrence deceeved the congratulations are being extended to the and Mrs. Lawrence deceeved the congratulations are being extended to the and Mrs. Lawrence deceeved the congratulation of the plant the development of the plant that the development of the plant the plant the development of the plant the d brought his family to New York when his daughters were children. He died twenty years ago.

Mrs. Donald J. Warner Has Son.
Mr. And Mrs. Donald J. Warner of Salisbury, Conn., are receiving congratistions on the birth of a son on Friday.
May 13. Mrs. Warner, before her marriage last June, was Miss Lois Church Scoville, of 10 East Fifty-second street.

Notes of the Theaires.
Charles Dillingham has engaged Dednon Mitchell to support Barney Bernard in "Problecks Avay," Agron Hoffman's new play.
Mish Church Scoville, of 10 East Fifty-second street.

Disabled Soldiers Cheered by Promise of More.

Disabled Soldiers Cheered by Promise of May 28.

"Im through," said Mr. Ziegfeld last night. "I will not run a place of amusement where we have to have a policeman on watch who goes around the tables to saiff in the glasses and see if a diner had a flask and used it. We have been obeying the law strictly as second day rehearsal, and recited that in the perfecting of airplane radio apparatus and radio direction finders. His chief value to the Government, however, lay in his development of one of the finest radio research laboratories in the world.

Capt. R. C. Brenton.

San Prancisco. May 17.—Capt. Reginal Carry Brenton, senior captain of the emergency list of the British and former Admiral-in-Chief of the Maxican Navy under the Diaz administration, its grants, according to passe.

EMILY WOOLSEY DIX DIES SUDDENLY AT 70

yesterday morning at Apple Hill, her summer home in Mount Kisco, in her seventieth year. Mrs. Dix had been but a short time at her country place and last Wednesday came to New York for the consecration in the Cathedral of St. John the Divine of the Rev. Dr. William T. Manning.

who now and then assists in concocting a tasty dish, turned actors themselves yesterday in Supreme Court Justice Platzek's courtroom, furnishing entertainment gratts in an action by Irene Castle, dancer, in private life the wife of Robert Treman of Utica, for $30,000, due her on an allegedly broken contract. On cues by David Podell and Nathan Burken, attorneys for plaintiff and defendant, respectively, the managers and the stage director wore cut the court attendants knuckles, so often did the attaches have to rap for order after the witnesses' replies.

A great deal of the amusement grew out of the disclosed wariness of stage celebrities to sign contracts with the new long defunct Century Amusement Corporation, which had such men as W. K.

A REWARD OF $125

a REWARD OF $125.

will be paid for return of plathum and diamond bowknot pin, lost May 11, between 56th and 72d sts. BLACK, STARR & FROST. Sth av. and 48th st.

LOST-Bar pin, plathnom ffligree, 9 diamonds, vicinity of 11th st., 6th av. and Waverley place, May 13, between 7 and 11 P. M. Reward return to WILLIAMS, 2I W. 11th st.

$150 REWARD.

Lost, gold cigarette case, initialised C. A. M. outside, name C. A. Miller inside. Return to A. E. LEWIS, care Abraham & Co., 27 William 8t., Now York.

LOST-Plamend ring, ladles' dressing room, Waldorf-Astoria, May 15, about 5 o'ciock, Liberal reward if returned to UPTON SLING-LIFF, telephone Rector $826. No questions asked.

ormer Admiral-in-Chief of the Mexican Navy under the Diaz administration, tiled recently in Moxico at the age of 3 yaars, according to word received by friends to-day.

WOMEN of ability and character answer Herald Help Wanted Ans. They size put their "Situations Wanted" in the same paper, See Classified Scottes, Adv.

DIED

ow to Be Buried To-morrow.

Mrs. Emily Woolsey Dix, widow of the Rev. Dr. Morgan Dix, for many years ector of Trinity parish, died suddenly esterday morning at Apple Hill, her ummer home in Mount Kisco, in her wentieth year. Mrs. Dix had been it a short the suddenly that a short the suddenly that a short the suddenly that the suddenly

PHONE COLUMNEUS $200 Devateva Offica, 23d St. & 8th Av.

NOTICES OF

Memorials Engagements Confirmations Lodges may be telephoned for publication in THE NEW YORK HER-ALD any time up to midnight for the next day's issue. Call Chelsea 4000 up to 10 P. M. After that hour, Worth 10,000.

Deaths

1970 Broadway at 66th St.